A fantastic opportunity to own a beautiful 20,000 m<sup>2</sup> plot of land in Biar, with electric and water supplied this plot is surrounded by stunning countryside views. This lovely piece of land is filled with mature almond and olive trees, adding to its charm and natural beauty.

With ample space and a peaceful setting, the generous size of this land provides plenty of space for various possibilities, whether it's a family home, country retreat, or even agricultural use, this plot of land will give you the opportunity to do this.

Located in the mountain range called "Sierra Mariola", Biar was once called Apiarium which comes from the Roman word for beehive because this area was rich in aromatic herbs which made for a very prosperous production in honey. As you approach Biar you do not need to have eagle-eyes to contemplate its 12th century castle majestically overlooking this quaint village. Like many castles which are set upon the city's hill, you need to have comfortable shoes to make the climb up through the narrow curvy pebble stone streets. But it is so well worth the effort once you are there, closer to heaven and beholding these intense sights of the valley of Vinalopo.

Biar is certainly worth considering, if you want a relaxing day off from sunny Costa Blanca beach life.
